

Great Environmental Learning Experience

Nature Field Day is a FREE outdoor environmental education event for all 4th grade students in McLeod County.

Through the many interactive and demonstrative activities, students learn that conservation has an impact on them and that they can have an impact on the environment.

This is a great way for students to get in touch with the natural world around them.

To participate in this event, please complete the registration form and return it to the McLeod SWCD.

Sponsored By:

McLeod SWCD

2570 9th Street East

Glencoe, MN 55336

www.mcleodswcd.org

Contact Information:

Telephone: 320-864-5176

Fax: 320-864-5737

E-Mail: kari.becker@mn.nacdnet.net

Or

ryan.freitag@mn.nacdnet.net

Educational topics and/or speakers are subject to change. All students should wear clothing appropriate to current weather conditions for outdoor activities. A building at the McLeod County Fairgrounds is on standby in case of rain. .

McLeod Soil & Water Conservation District

McLeod County

2011 NATURE FIELD DAY

4th Grade Students & Teachers

May 10 & 11, 2011

Educational Activities

During the Nature Field Day event, classes of students will rotate through several different stations hosted by a variety of conservation professionals.

TOPICS INCLUDE

- Fisheries—Station 1
Speaker: Gene Jeseritz
DNR Fisheries
- Animal Health—Station 2
Speaker: Trudy Lickfelt—Day 1
Glencoe Veterinary Clinic
Speaker: Kelsey Buss—Day 2
Dairy Science Major
- Trees and Soils—Station 3
Speaker: Nathan Winter/Jill Grams
MN Extension Services
- Community Waters—Station 4
Speaker: Rob Collett
DNR Waters
- Recycling & Composting—Station 5
Speaker: Sarah Young
McLeod County Solid Waste
Speaker: Becky Kobow
Creekside
- Wildlife—Station 6
Speaker: Clayton Schmitz
District Conservationist
Speaker: Keith Trudell
Soil Conservation Technician

Piepenburg Park is located 7 miles NW of Hutchinson on County Road 60. Please have the buses unload the students by the beach area in the back part of the park.

